Board Battles Over Unification

Denounces County Group; Says Minutes 'Altered'

By JACK SEYMOUR

Howls that could be heard far and wide went up at the Orinda School Board meeting Monday night when the subject of school unification came up.

"A plague on all your houses" appeared to be the board members' theme as they successively denounced the county reorganization committee, other school boards, the public and the newspapers.

Individually or collectively, the members:

Accused the county committee of falsifying minutes of a reorganization meeting.

Denounced other school boards for being either "for" or "against" unification.

Questioned why one school board switched from hot to cool on its unification stand.

Said the newspapers "blew up" the subject of unification when no one had paid any attention to the matter previously.

Turned right around and blamed "the public" for "not showing any interest in unification."

Described the April 1 committee meeting at Alcalanes High School as "an insult to parliamentary procedure."

Rapidly disintegrated into a confusion of opinions and charges in what at times reached a state of chaos hardly resembling anything ever dreamed of in "Robert's Rules of Order."

However, after the tumult and the shouting died, the board made clear it would arrive "en masse" at the next committee meeting set for April 29 at Alcalanes.

The board also directed Superintendent Joseph Sheaff to write to other local school trustees asking for "cooperation" in preparing information for study of "the entire question of unification—pro and con."

statement that an April 1 session of the group was "for the purpose of voting on whether or not area school districts should unify."

"THAT STATEMENT" was put in without foundation," he said. "No such action was taken at any meeting of the county committee."

Trustees said the Orinda Board protested to Dr. Jack Shabbazian, chairman of the county committee, but no one could remember what answer, if any, was received from Dr. Shabbazian.

TRUSTEES SAID they have been "misled" by the central committee. They accused the group of "trying to railroad through" a unification plan which might be "dangerous" to the Orinda district.

Phil Bush, candidate for the board in the May elections, said county committee members might "try to sweep Orinda along in a tide which may not be in its best interests."

Trustee Gordon Ainsworth said the board "is greatly concerned" about the entire subject of unification.

"We are determined to learn all the facts before this issue gets out of hand," he added.

The April 1 meeting, also held at Alcalanes, was "chaotic," and "an insult to parliamentary procedures," Ambler declared.

Nathan Gray, board president, reiterated that the trustees are determined "to be represented in force" at the next county committee meeting. "This time we will get at the facts," he said.

Carnival to be Held

The Chamber of Commerce Carnival will be held on the grounds of Lafayette School if the chamber board of directors approve the site.

Approval is expected at the group's next meeting.

W. E. Ellis, superintendent of schools, said the district board of trustees okayed the chamber request to use the school area for the carnival, according to C. R. Johnston, chamber manager.

THE EVENT is scheduled to be held from June 22 to 28. Chamber members are still searching for a "suitable name for the carnival."

It has been known as the Lafayette Beautification Carnival but chamber members agree that the title has no "schmaltz," or "zing."

ONE CHAMBER member said, "It (the name) doesn't sing, and furthermore it doesn't describe the carnival at all."

A local young man with a flare for words suggested "BEAUT Festival."

"YOU SEE," he explained, casting an eye in the direction of Madison Avenue and tugging on his pseudo-Brooks Brothers suit, "it spells out what we want," he said.

"Beautify Everything Around Us Today—BEAUT—get it?" Chamber officials had no comment.

Gill Case Closed; County Grand Jury Study To Study Repayment

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors closed the "Gill Affair" Tuesday in Martinez with the suggestion that it was the body being criticized.

The board heard the resolution of the County Grand Jury that there were evidences of "poor discretion," but insufficient evidence to press criminal charges against Gerould L. Gill, fire chief and commissioner of the East Contra Costa Fire Protection District.

THE GRAND JURY recommended to the supervisors that tighter control be exercised over the county's fire districts.

"It seems to me that both Gill and this board have been slapped on the wrist by the Grand Jury," commented Board Chairman W. G. "Bud" Buchanan.

Gill stepped to the rostrum and said:

"Thirteen years ago you gave us a very tough job to do—to provide fire protection to 114 square miles, with very little money with which to do it. . . . The people in the district are satisfied. As for Moraga, even there the people are satisfied with the service.

"Any complaints have been by people outside of my district. One was by a newspaperman who does not even live in my district."

This reference was obviously to the publisher of The Sun, Herman Silverman, who printed that until recently the same phone number was listed for the Eastern Fire District and Gill's wife and sons have worked for the district.

"THE TELEPHONE," Gill told the supervisors, "belongs to us, and not to anybody else. The district made a deal with us—that's the way they wanted it. Until recently, the phone company was not able to furnish another phone there.

"As for the services of my wife and sons—the district has an area with not over 200 people in 200 square miles, and before Moraga started to grow we had to do things differently from the way they were done in other districts. . . . My boys went on part-time wages, cutting off $900 a month expenses for the district. . . . My wife worked on telephone and radio dispatch for $65 a month, on call 365 days a year. . . .

"We had to do with what we had, the best way we could. I built two buildings to house the fire district equipment. . . . I have worked 25 years—13 years since the district was formed—for nothing."

"THE ATTACKS against me and my family are irresponsible criticism. . . . My commissioners are 100 per cent behind me, and so are my people. . . . I have done my best. . . . I've worked hard."

Gill reiterated his intention to resign as fire chief and board chairman in June.

"We know of your hard work," Buchanan said.

Supervisor Joseph Silva quoted the Grand Jury reference to "insufficient" evidence and observed "That covers a lot of ground."

Buchanan nodded. NO COMMENT was made by the other three supervisors, including Mel Nielsen, who, along with Silverman, has been mentioned by Gill as a detractor.

Meanwhile, County Administrator J. P. McBrien informed The Sun he would study whether Gill would have to pay back district money which was paid for classified advertising listings in the Contra Costa Telephone Directory.

The Sun learned some months ago that classified advertising listings in the Yellow Pages of the telephone directory for Gill's Marsh Creek Lodge were being paid for by the district's taxpayers.

MCBRIEN SAID that he had not as yet looked into the matter of possible repayment of the $10-$12 monthly charge which was charged to the district's phone, but by Gill's statements was his personal telephone.

The Sun disclosed that in the 1957-1958 telephone directories there were classified advertising listings which, according to county auditor Howard McNamer, had been paid by the fire district.

Grand Jury Study Of Jr. College Report Underway

The Contra Costa County Grand Jury will meet Monday to investigate the two-week dispute between the Contra Costa County Junior College District administration and the district's faculty.

District Attorney John Nejedly announced he has referred to the grand jury the feud growing between District Superintendent Drummond McCann and the faculty.

NEJEDLY NOTED his action was taken at the request of Archie Mooney, member of the jury's education committee.

Mooney stated he was tired about reading of the incident in the newspapers, a public display that isn't doing the public and good.

Edward Valentino, foreman, said the grand jury's education committee will meet in Martinez Monday with trustees and faculty members to try to determine the facts of the dispute.

Valentino commented, however, it would be an exploratory session.

THE HASSLE erupted as the result of a report which was issued by a California Teacher's Association committee based on personnel standards in the district.

The report alleged a breakdown in communications between the faculty and the superintendent, poor morale, the college board had held a secret meeting and numerous other allegations aimed at the college board and McCann.

George Gordon, district board president, labeled the report as being "un- democratic" and slammed at another statement in the report as being a "lie."

Valentino, in a press statement, explained "the grand jury doesn't expect to find any criminal evidence, but is seriously concerned and hopes to help both sides arrive at an amicable solution."

Boys Collect Old Bottles

Two small boys went forth the other day and collected $5 for children less fortunate than they. Howard Evans, 8, and David Bollwinkel, 9, visited neighbors along the street where they live and asked for old bottles.

RESIDENTS of Whiteoak Drive gave gladly and the boys promptly returned the empties to local stores.

They collected $5 which they sent to Mrs. Alma Goodloe, president of the Crippled Children's Society of Contra Costa County.

"THIS IS to help kids to walk again," the boys wrote in a letter accompanying the five dollars.

Mrs. Goodloe, touched and gratified, said the society would send the boys a "special" thank you letter.

Deer Destruction Brings Protests; Action Asked

Deer are "becoming bolder, are multiplying in number," and inflicting damage in Orinda.

Residents have protested to Supervisor Mel Nielsen, asking the county to stop the "depredations . . . by deer which invade the premises and devour the foliage."

NIELSEN PROMPTLY took the matter up with the board of supervisors which referred the matter to the state department of fish and game, according to Whitford G. Kelly, 118 Canon Drive.

Kelly, spokesman for 11 other residents, said "our gardens and orchards are being despoiled by deer" in spite of efforts by individuals to halt the invasion.

In a letter of protest to Nielsen, the residents said they "have taken many measures in our efforts" to prevent damage by deer.

THESE INCLUDE use of odorant repellents, hanging white cloths, use of chicken wire and turning on bright lights at night, the residents declared.

In spite of these anti-deer measures, the deer are getting "bolder" and presumably fatter.

"It is discouraging us from trying to produce and maintain attractive gardens," Orindans said. "SO MUCH more would be done by us in the way of beautification, which, in turn, would reflect on the general beauty of Orinda, if we knew that these pests were controlled," the complaint stated.

"It is earnestly desired . . . that this unfortunate situation be taken in hand . . ." the residents concluded.

Narcotic Window Display Ruled Out by Authorities

Equipment used by dope addicts will not be on display in store windows in Orinda, it was announced by the Orinda Young Republicans.

Originally it was planned to show various items used by addicts. Local authorities approved the displays.

BUT "HIGHER headquarters" referred the decision, saying "it would be dangerous," according to the Young Republicans.

However, the items will be on display at the showing of a film, "I Am An Addict," Tuesday at 8:30 p.m., in Pine Grove School Auditorium.

No one under 18 may attend the showing but all adults are welcome.

Michael S. Reppas, director of special investigations for the Berkeley Police Department, will narrate the film and discuss the narcotics problem.

The film shows an addict "taking a fix" and "cutting" dope for resale. It reveals the addict's reaction to narcotics.

POSTERS publicizing the event were made by Bob Woodward, Sam De Franco, Pauline Croci and Joan Radonich—all of Miramonte High School. Art department head John Mack supervised the poster work.

Children Starting School In Fall? -- Register Now!

Registrations will be held in the Orinda School District for children who will enter kindergarten and first grade, in September for the first time.

Children who have attended kindergarten in the school district need not register for first grade. Dates of registration are: Del Rey School, April 13, 14, 15; Sleepy Hollow School, April 13, 14; Glorietta School, April 16, 17; and Orinda School, April 16, 17.

All registrations will be held from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

All parents are urged to register children on one of these three days in order that school administrators may plan more accurately for the new school term.

It is absolutely essential that birth certificates be shown at the time of registration, the officials pointed out.

Under Section 8404 of Education Code, a child must be at least four years and nine months old on September 1, 1959, to enter kindergarten in the fall of 1959.

This means that a child must have been born on or before December 2, 1954, in order to be accepted for enrollment in the kindergarten in any public school in California.

A child must be at least five years and nine months old on September 1, 1959, to enter first grade in the fall of 1959.

This means that a child must have been born on or before December 2, 1953, in order to be accepted for enrollment in the first grade in any public school in California.

Board Supports Law to Cut Elective Posts

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors Tuesday in Martinez unanimously supported a proposed law which would cut the number of elected county officials.

The assembly bill would permit the supervisors to call a general election to determine whether the people wanted to make certain elective offices appointive positions rather than elective ones.

AB 922 PROVIDES the offices of treasurer, tax collector, auditor, clerk, recorder, public administrator and coroner may become appointive if the people vote to eliminate the elective requirements.

J. P. McBrien, county administrator, commented Monday that Contra Costa County has combined several of its elective offices.

For example the offices of treasurer-tax collector, auditor-controller, clerk-recorder and public administrator - public guardian-corer have been combined for the past several years.

Under the provisions of the law, the Board of Supervisors would still have to be elected as would the sheriff, district attorney, assessor and superintendent of schools.

THE CONTRA COSTA County Grand Jury, however, has resolved the position county superintendent of schools should be appointive rather than elective.

In a recent statement the grand jury commented the post should be "educational rather than political."

Arguments for the proposed legislation claim the new appointive system would bring a higher calibre of person into public office.

Under the new plan selection of officials will be on the basis of competitive examination and the appointive office holders would need professional and educational qualifications, proponents state.

Friendly Jets 'Blast' Area

"Those jets may be friendly, but they sure don't act like it, sometimes," said a local resident, this week, after a series of thunderous claps on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The U. S. Air Force admitted yesterday that supersonic planes from the 28th Air Division, Edwards Air Base, were operating over the Bay Area, this week, and were undoubtedly responsible for the "thunderous sounds" which result when the planes pass "through the sonic barrier."

No large damage was reported in the central county, but many residents called their law enforcement agencies and government offices, registering complaints.

Several of the booms seemed to come with a double impact in quick succession.

Reports were circulating early in the week that dynamite blasting was responsible for the booms, but efforts to trace the blasts were fruitless.

Big Fires to be Set at Dam Site

Air Raid Shelter Study Will be Made at Briones

By JACK SEYMOUR

There will be smoke over Orinda when the East Bay Municipal Utility District starts "large scale fires" at the Briones Valley dam site.

Hot on the heels of rumors last week that an H-bomb factory was to be built near the reservoir facility came news the Office of Civil Defense will study "effects of large scale fires on people in air raid shelters."

The EBMUD announcement said "similar experiments have been conducted during nuclear tests in Nevada."

Atomic Energy Commission and EBMUD officials flatly denied that an atomic installation was to be constructed at the reservoir.

The "hot fire" tests will be conducted later this year, EBMUD said.

Fire Chiefs Frank E. Pereira of the Briones fire district and H. Everett Wyatt of Orinda were named as issuing the statement.

Because "information about temperature and toxic gases in shelters is inadequate," the big burn-off is planned, the statement from EBMUD said.

Here are excerpts from the official statement:

"Participating in the session will be personnel of the California Forest and Range Experiment Station, Contra Costa County fire departments and districts, and the forestry unit of the East Bay Municipal Utility District. Sponsoring the training will be the East Bay Hills Fire Protection Committee."

The large scale training program will be made possible by burning the debris cleared from 250 acres of the Briones Dam site by the East Bay Municipal Utility District.

"CERTAIN STUDIES will be made by the California Forest and Range Experiment Station of Berkeley, a unit of the United States Department of Agriculture Forest Service, according to Experiment Station Director Keith Auld.

"The first study is a cooperative study with the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization in which we are trying to determine possible effects of large scale fires on people in air raid shelters."

"We need a large area of intense fire under controlled conditions in order to measure conditions in shelters — temperatures, amount and types of gases."

"Only simulated shelters will be used. Information about temperatures and amount of carbon monoxide or other toxic gases will be obtained through instruments placed in several excavations directly under the fire and on the rimming of the fire area."

"Some information on weapons effects is available from World War II experience in Europe and Asia."

SHELTER experiments also have been conducted by OCM during nuclear tests in Nevada. However, information about temperature and toxic gases in shelters still is inadequate.

Type and amount of fuel to be cleared from the reservoir site was described as ideal for this study, and the information could not be obtained except through such controlled conditions.

"Arnold said the station's second study would be the effect of fire on local freemasonry patterns. This work, he said, has been carried on by intensively instrumenting a small drainage before a prescribed burn takes place, to determine the "normal" freemasonry patterns, and continuing the measurements through the burn, to learn the effect of the fire on the local wind patterns. These local freemasonry surveys are a part of a statewide study of winds which affect forest fires."

"The hot fire that should result from burning the woody material in the reservoir area will give us information normally difficult to obtain from an ordinary prescribed burn."

"Some of the information will be of interest to air pollution authorities because it will add to the storehouse of knowledge about the effects of air pollutants from this kind of fire."

"Fire-fighting instructions during the training season will include use of pyro-technic devices, fire retardant chemicals, fire crew organization and mop-up techniques."

"This burning is being permitted under the Bay Area Pollution Control District regulations as a fire training exercise."

"THE TENTATIVE fire plan will provide for controlled firing of disposal areas one by one, after the cleared woody material has been placed in windrows. The material in each area will be fired by simultaneous ignition methods."

"This will be handled in rapid succession when the fuel is dry and the meteorological conditions are favorable for the fire training and studies of simulated bomb shelters."

Cardroom Closing At 2 A.M. Called By Supervisors

"All card rooms in Contra Costa County will be shut down at 2 a.m. effective immediately."

This was the order issued by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors Tuesday in Martinez after hearing a presentation by Judge Louis Edmunds of the Rodeo Judicial District.

SUPERVISOR Mel F. Nielsen moved the emergency ordinance closing the card rooms at 2 a.m., to be enacted by the board as Tom Coll and Jim Kenny, supervisors of the third and first districts chimed in with a second.

District attorney John Nejedly opposed the emergency measure on the grounds the 2 a.m. closing time will not solve the problem of gambling facing the county.

Nejedly stated he will have a comprehensive ordinance prepared by mid-May which will resolve "many of the county's growing gambling problems."

THE CASE OF THE MISSING CAKE is demonstrated by Mrs. Jack Noble (third from left), chairman of the "Mythical" cake sale for benefit of Acalanes High School. Instead of holding an actual sale, the Parents Club Scholarship Fund asks parents to donate $1 for "mythical" goodies. Money helps four seniors in part of their college educations. Looking on at the "now you see it, now you don't," are Mrs. Vincent Lombardo, left; Stanley Walgren, Acalanes principal; and Mrs. Ralph Woods.

Parents Active In High School Consultations

Parents at Miramonte, Acalanes and Las Lomas High Schools play an active advisory role in local secondary education, say advisors.

Parent activity is channeled through the school parents clubs, the executive officers of those clubs and a special advisory panel sponsored at each high school.

While most parents are familiar with parent club activity, all may not be aware of the program conducted through the advisory committees. The advisory committees meet monthly to discuss education and adolescent problems.

THE RANGE of topics discussed goes from foreign language teaching, extra curricular activities, corrective physical education, social life, accelerated academic programs for able students, homework, career counseling, interschool athletics for girls, special reading programs, techniques on how to study, and many other subjects.

School principals Lee Russell of Las Lomas, Stanley Walgren of Acalanes, and James Lewis at Miramonte have said that "advisory committees help provide an interchange of ideas between parents and the school."

Parents on the Las Lomas advisory board include L. M. Faiko, M. O. Richter, Mrs. John Strong, Dr. I. C. Barnholdt, Robert Fairchild, Mrs. Russell Grater, Mrs. Virginia Wilder, Mrs. F. J. Bertanelli, C. E. Carroll, Ernest Mill, Holland, Mrs. H. P. Ritz, Mrs. George A. Anderson, Mrs. Ray Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hill, A. J. Leonard, and Mrs. Robert Riegg.

Acalanes advisory committee members are Mrs. Kathryn Barante, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Brat.

Boy Scouts To Fly Off Into Space

Want to take a trip to the moon? Journey to a star? Or drift off into space?

If you do—just join the Boy Scouts. They're going, says William McAuley, chairman of the 1959 Mt. Diablo Council.

"Space Age Travel" will be the theme at the 1959 Boy Scouts of America Top Awards Banquet, which is set for April 16, says McAuley.

The trip will come when Douglas Saylor and Frank Riley, scientists from Lockheed's Sunnyvale Guided Missiles Center, take more than 200 top award recipients and their sponsors on an imaginary space ship journey at the dinner meeting.

Saylor and Riley are scientists of national reputation, so the Scouts aren't kidding. They're off for real.

Also, the ceiling can be covered with beveled siding to give a unique decorative effect. Panel boards and beveled siding come in west coast hemlock, western red cedar or Douglas fir and paneling is available in a variety of patterns.

Barbara was given in marriage by her father, Kenneth Trumbly. She was gowned in a white net model applied with lace and with a train. She wore a veil of fingertip length and carried a bouquet of white bouvardia with orchids. Her attendants were attired in pale pink dotted swiss gowns with pink nosegays. Mrs. Alan Trumbly, her sister-in-law, was matron of honor. Also in attendance were Elenora Rice, Marti Hardwick and Diane Beauchamp. For Dick, Gary Bartling was best man, while James Botto,

Bill Bellas, and Alan Trumbly served as ushers. Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Trumbly of Oakland, and the granddaughter of Mrs. Agnes Trumbly of Carmel. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Botto of Orinda. The bride's mother, Mrs. Kenneth Trumbly, wore a blue sheer shirtmaker dress with pink accessories and a corsage of white cymbidium orchids. The bridegroom's mother was attired in an embroidered linen sheath dress with blue accessories and wore a corsage of ivory toned cymbidium orchids. The reception for the newlyweds was held at the Fraternal Club immediately following the ceremony and featured a buffet supper and dancing.

AMERICAN TRUST COMPANY

NEW

Automatic Credit Account

This new kind of account gives you credit at the bank. It's a reserve to draw on whenever and wherever you need it, and whatever you need it for.

Once this comprehensive credit account is established, you can write a check, or checks, for any amount that you may need—up to the full limit of your credit.

Automatically, the bank advances money to cover any Automatic Credit checks you write and once a month sends you a statement of your account showing the amount of credit used and the monthly payment due.

Automatically, as you pay your bill at the bank, you restore the amount of credit available to you.

Like a business, you set up a "line of credit." This forethought means that you don't have to touch your "capital"—or dip into your savings—to meet an unexpected need.

And your Automatic Credit Account costs you nothing at all until you actually write your first check.

Here's how it works:

You don't have to be a depositor! All you do is fill out a simple application for the amount of credit you'd like to have available. As soon as your application is approved, you can use part or all of it. There are no application fees and your Automatic Credit Account costs nothing until you use it.

Your "line of credit" can be $300—or up to $3,000. Your Automatic Credit Account will be based on 24 times the amount you can comfortably repay per month. For example, if you arrange to repay $30 per month, your maximum credit will be $720. Once you start using your Automatic Credit Account you will receive a monthly statement showing the amount of your "line of credit" which is in use and the monthly payment due.

You receive a book of checks which look to any payee like an ordinary check.

How you pay back the credit used. Your monthly payments will be 1/24th of your "line of credit," or 1/10th of the actual balance due—whichever is less (with a minimum payment of $25). The charge for using your Automatic Credit Account is 1 1/4 per cent of the balance due each month, plus 25 cents for each check used.

You have a revolving cash reserve. As monthly payments are made, reducing the balance due on the account, you automatically restore the amount of credit available to you.

It's good business to be prepared! An Automatic Credit Account makes it easy to plan ahead. Come in to any office of American Trust Company and let our people tell you how this Automatic Credit Account can help you be prepared for the unexpected.

Time Wounds All Heels?

WE SALLIED into the Village Shoe Shop to be greeted by Mr. Baer. He offered to do a guest column sometime, subject—"Heels." "What kind of heels?" we ventured, in our naive Norwegian manner. "Women's Heels, what else?" said Al in his best Bugs Baerish fashion.

Maxine Philobosian was there buying Keds for her young son. When the "old shoes" were boxed, jr. salesman Gilmore handed the package to her. "Oh, just chuck them out," she said. "THESE?" said salesman G., unwrapping the boy's Best Shoes which his mother hadn't realized he'd worn. She thought he'd been wearing his beat-up Keds. With Keds & Keds, one never knows!

Jim Billings of Laf. has the distinguished honor of being FIRST in line to sign up for the popular Berk. Camp at Tuolumne. But he bags to the steps of the Berk. Rec. Dept. Bldg. at 10:30 the night before the day for non-resident registration. This is the same Jim & dgtr. Deb had to Camp Out to do it. They took their sleeping Billings who charms the young fisherman (& old ones, too) w/ his fancy fly-casting. Louie Barnum of Springhill Rd. was 3rd in line at 4:30 in the morning.

Natalie & Bob Williams & their 3 youngsters arrived home from a holiday in Hawaii last week. One of their sun-tanned sons queried his mother—"When does the feeling go away that you don't still feel you wish you were back where you were, Mom?" We know what he means!

It Happens Every Spring

The Robert McFarlands have a new baby girl—Kathy . . . and so do the Gordon Martins. Orinda 6th grade teacher Donald Hardy was passing our cigars last week. His first child, a boy named Kenneth!

EASTER VACASH NOTES: Marty & Loretta Jacobs & their family were at Sun Valley . . . Liz & John Follard visited their grandchildren in Portland & had another holiday at Alisal Ranch. Back to books & blackboard after a Mexico vacation is Mrs. Edith Andree, Orinda 4th Gr. teacher.

Lid Miles, Em Randall & Jean Henderson will go back to College on Apr. 15. The ladies are in the assembly line for the annual Mills Alumni Assembly Day.

IT HAPPENS EVERY SPRING: The long lineup of ladies in the mid-morn Golf Sessions on the 16th Hole. We glimpsed Millie Cutting, putting. And late afternoon seems to be the favorite time for practice shots. . . . We saw Betty Bergen getting her golf bag out of the car, a fetching suburbia sight in white.

It was Kick The Can at the El Toy, Intersec. one day last week. Somebody's errant garbage can getting the bumper from passing cars 'til a thoughtful motorist stopped & carried it off the roadway. One lady we know was out gardening & got hit by a fast-flying hummingbird. Now she has a black eye. Well, that's what SHE told us!

Let's Unify Our Thoughts On School Unification...

The Augmented County Committee on School District Reorganization deserves commendation on its decision to continue the study on the unification of school districts in the Lafayette-Walnut Creek-Orinda-Moraga-Canyon areas.

The importance of this study and the eventual decision as it relates to every person in the area cannot be stressed too highly.

Nearly every person who lives in our community has a child in school, or one who will be shortly.

And if you don't have children, you still pay taxes. What this committee decides eventually cannot help but effect you.

THERE SEEMS TO BE a considerable amount of mis-information and general lack of information among people who are affected by this unification study. Certainly the school board members involved should be interested in disseminating information.

Indeed, the individual school boards should make it a point to inform their constituents of board reaction to the various problems involved in this study, and of the progress he board is making in determining its ideas.

The Sun has given substantial coverage to the matter in the past and will continue to do so, but a fully informative campaign, carried out by the individual school boards, would be a valuable tool in shaping a general understanding of the complex problems involved.

We suggest that somewhere along the line a public meeting be held at which time the pros and cons of unification can be debated or explained. It may be too early in the game for such a meeting now, but one should be held before discussions have reached any final point.

IN THIS WAY the opinions of the people may be heard, and that is probably the most important factor in the entire chain of events.

After all, it is the residents who are going to get either more and/or better service for their school tax dollar, or a reduction in the tax rate for the same services, and these residents have a right to express their opinions.

The individual school boards need education on the unification situation, as do the people.

It should prove satisfactory to get together and work out some of the answers.

It might even make it easier for the boards to come up with the answers they are looking for. We certainly don't know whether or not unification is a good thing at this point, and we doubt that anyone really does.

But we do know that everyone should be in on the development of the formula for unification, if and when it comes about.

And now is the time to start working together.

Of Smoke and Fire Districts

Where there's smoke, there's fire, the old saying goes.

We might paraphrase that these days to read, where there is or is not fire, there's a Fire district, and we all pay taxes to support same.

A fire district is an expense, and a necessary one. Fire prevention, certainly, can be a full time job... and nobody is more welcome than the fireman when things get hot around the house.

And what do we expect from fire districts? Efficiency, both in operation and service.

PENDING BEFORE the California State Legislature is Assembly Bill 919 which would allow the county board of supervisors to establish a single county-wide fire district to replace the present 21 city, county managed and independent public fire departments.

This "super district" would be operated by the five county supervisors and six representatives of the county's 11 cities. It could levy different tax rates in zones where varying types of fire protection are required.

We do not feel that this is a sound proposal.

This is not a negative attitude. Consolidation certainly could be an answer to many of the confusing problems relating to fire districts, but consolidation of the fire districts under this plan does not appear to be feasible.

Our main objection stems from the fact that the five county supervisors have plenty to do already. Let's face it. In the past, and even now, we have instances where the board of supervisors simply isn't doing a job for the county.

WHAT COULD WE expect if we saddle the board with one more task?

Basically, the board is now nominally "in charge" of the fire districts, and we have seen what has happened in at least one case... that of the East Contra Costa Fire Protection District, which the grand jury pointed out was mismanaged.

Unquestionably, the supervisors are too busy to take on a chore of this magnitude, and the poor city councilmen are busy enough doing what amounts to a volunteer job running their own cities.

Nor would the "Los Angeles Plan" be an answer, where you have one "super board" over a lot of small district boards.

THEN WHAT IS the answer? Consolidation of all the fire districts under one board might well do the trick... if we had a separate board to run this huge fire district.

This board could be elected or appointed, and this plan might work.

But not with the board of supervisors and the City Councilmen at the helm.

Not Far Enough, But Lots Better Than Status Quo...

It doesn't go far enough, but it's a step in the right direction!

That is Assembly Bill 922, now pending, which would permit appointment of all presently elective county officials except the supervisors, sheriff, assessor, district attorney and county superintendent of schools.

This bill does not go as far as the recommendations of the present grand jury, which included all offices except those of the district attorney and judges.

WE FEEL THAT passage of this bill would give the people of Contra Costa County a real wedge in opening the door to better government. The more county officials which are brought under the direct control of the board of supervisors, the better off we will be.

Because the county administrator—or better yet, a powerful county manager—can then control the operation and weld our county government into an efficient, business-like operation.

Under this system the board of supervisors could truly operate like a board should—as a policy making body with the actual administrative tasks being taken care of by the county manager.

This bill, when put into effect in the county, would help cure another evil, too.

IN MOST CASES nobody runs against a strongly entrenched elected public official who has been around for years. Under the new bill, a county official who was not performing up to par could be removed by the county manager and a suitable replacement named by the board of supervisors.

We'd like to see this bill with even more teeth in it... and we'd like to see it get the support of our board of supervisors, too.

It doesn't go far enough, but it is surely a step in the right direction.

Get Off Johnny's Back Dad

By JACK SEYMOUR

So Johnny can't read, eh? I have news for him. His old man can't, either.

JUDGING BY letters to the editor, Dad can't spell and is generally confused by what he reads, writes and thinks.

For years parents have been getting away with murder and it's about time for a little rebellion in the moppet ranks. ARISE, JUNIOR. Cast off the slurs that bind you.

You've been conned by parents, teachers, Hollywood, radio and television and the women's magazines.

Your parents have been going around with a big case of guilty feelings about their own inadequacies so they've been putting the blame on you.

THE REVOLUTION should be near. Mom and Dad have sold their brains down the river and they've been using Johnny and his sister Sue as the biggest underage scapegoats of all time.

Mr. and Mrs. Parent-Teacher have been seduced by Madison Avenue for so long that they now accept the banal, the trivial and the inanity as the gospel according to Saint Huckster.

FOR AN entire generation of Americans to accept the trash that is turned out daily, including Sunday, is unbelievable, incredible and downright feeble-minded. The truth of the matter is that our kids are brighter than their parents.

YOUNG PEOPLE can see through phony, the sham and the artificial. They aren't lured by the pitchmen of the 24-inch screen.

Since the parents won't change and are incapable of wanting to take a long, hard look at themselves the only plea I can make is that they lay off their kids.

IN SHORT, get off Johnny's back, Daddy-o.

Me & The Boy Friend Step Out to S.F.

By MARIE MONAHAN

WE ARE having a First Date with a Very Young Man. A fashionable sort of evening. Semi-formal. That is what the invitation says. And to say the least, He is Very Impressed.

We overheard him on the phone with a friend. "Yep, Semi-formal," says he, like he's been doing it for years. Much more impressed than his friend. You can tell.

Our blue-eyed beau, sartorially splendid in a white Easter coat will accompany us to the preview of "The Boy Friend" at the new Bella Pacific across the bay. We have seen it with Father, with Visiting Firemen, with our Daughter, but tonight it will be different. His best shoes were lined up for a polish this morning. They stand blazing half way across the room.

So does a trail of black polish! YOU CAN TELL. The same fellow who spends hours in the shower cutting off the neighbor's hot water supply, even asked for a NEW bar of soap tonight. He usually forgets it altogether.

The scent of Father's Old Spice wafts through the air & we hear the sound of a toothbrush working overtime. Oh, Wonders of wonders!

This is the same fellow who wades through creeks in his brand new Keds. Who loses his new jackets, never his old ones. Who has given us a liberal education in everything from rock-collecting to bottling lizards, bleaching bones to firing BB guns. From him we learned ALL about trains & until he came into our life, we didn't even know what a Caboose was.

THIS BOTTOMLESS boy is a champion bowl-licker, a refrigerator-robber. He can empty the Cookie Jar in one fell swoop & is always famished 5 minutes after departing the dinner table.

Maybe we ought to stash a few tidbits in our bag. Just in case of a crisis during Intermission. If he can hold out till afterwards, we might blow him to a soda at Blum's.

NOW HE'S combing his hair.

This is a process that takes time & skilful touches with the comb. Not to mention plenty of water. Sprinkled all over the white jacket.

Well, HELLO! Ready? You look Great. (We have taken special pains to pick out the right earrings. To wear our new dress & our best white gloves.)

It's a pleasure, Ol' Man.

A regular Mutual Admiration Society, we are. Me & The Boy Friend!

Shall we go? Semi-Formal, You can tell.

Letters to The Editor

ABOUT S.B. 55

Dear Editor:

In the March issue of The California Legionnaire, Dept. Commander Jack Flynn has asked for letters to the senators to maintain the $1000 veterans' tax exemption, and defeat Senate Bill 55.

I am sure Mr. Flynn read the bill, as it in no way takes away any thing from the honest veteran, only those who some how manage to get through the door after it is closed.

This bill is in regard to Article XIII sec. 1-4 which was passed in 1911. The law states the veteran can have $1000 property tax exemption. The next part states, this does not apply however if the veteran has $5000 in property. Now property is defined in our state constitution, as any thing of value, both taxable and non-taxable. If Mr. Flynn believes in our Constitution, he should be for this bill as all it does is define what property is, and the veteran must list all his property.

I have letters from 20 counties in the State and the affidavit the veteran must sign, and most all interpret the law different. Senate Bill 55 makes one affidavit apply to all counties. What's wrong with that?

Now let's see what this bill will do for our counties. In 1958 we had 1,100,000 taking the exemption in the State. Also they increase around 50,000 every year. You and I have to pay the difference in their amounts to $2,400,000.

It could remove 75 per cent which would bring in to our county $1,800,000 each year. The veteran will average three youngsters to send to school. Look at the revenue this can add to our schools, which we need.

Also Mr. Flynn states his meetings with Director of Finance Bert Levi have proved unfruitful. It looks like Mr. Levi is looking out for all the people not a pressure group.

Interested in taxes, send to state printing office, ask for Senate Bill 55, read it, go to the library, read the state constitution, Article XIII, then send a letter to your state senator to pass Senate Bill 55.

ECONOMY

Dear Editor:

Noting in a recent issue of The Sun the figures released by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. Manager H. C. Greenhalgh, relating to Central Contra Costa County telephone service, I will give you some figures that were given to me about a year ago by one of the executives of this most deserving public service company, relating to this territory.

The telephone directory, March, 1959, gave the following as the only telephones listed in this locality:

Alamo: A. J. Henry, agent; Danville: John Conway, agent; Lafayette: M. Shreve, agent; San Ramon: H. Hrust, agent; Walnut Creek: A. Lebrecht and Co., agent.

In September, 1957, there were the following number of telephones in the area—Alamo receives service from Walnut Creek or Danville:

Danville, 4046; Lafayette, 5,918; San Ramon, service from Danville, and Walnut Creek, 16,757 telephones.

If our county were conducted in the same honest and efficient manner as the telephone company, our taxes could be cut in half.

FLUORIDATION

Dear Editor:

It was interesting to note the report made to a session of the American Orthopsychiatric Association by psychiatrists Dr. Judd Marmor of UCLA, Dr. Viola Bernard of Columbia, and Dr. Perry Ottenberg of the University of Pennsylvania, as published in the S.F. Chronicle recently.

The psychiatrists found that "opposition by vocal, organized groups of mentally unstable persons is causing defeat of water fluoridation projects throughout the country, and is seriously delaying important mental health programs."

Here is another factor which emphasizes the need for reasoned, scientifically arrived conclusions to prevail, instead of reasoning designed to encourage irrational fears.

I am sure that most of us welcomed the informative statement issued by the East Bay Municipal District in their leaflet called "splashes," which is included with our monthly water bill.

Under The Sun

Agenda: Commuting Co Adult Delinquents, Spring

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Should your commuting expenses be deducted as your cost of doing business?

"Yes" says Congresswoman Florence P. Dwyer. "The salesman who must travel may deduct his travel expenses. The doctor, the writer, the entertainer and, of course, the businessman—all have the right to deduct the cost of doing business."

"The wage earner and salaried person should have the same right," the congresswoman continues. "The cost of commuting, whether it is from city to city or street to street, is just as much a 'cost of doing business' as is the travel done by a doctor or lawyer."

Where you'll find it...

This interesting question and discussion is posed by Congresswoman Dwyer in today's Sun. To be more specific, you'll find it in The Sun's new rotogravure section, "Suburbia Today."

I'm certain you'll enjoy this national supplementary, "The Magazine of Pleasant Places." You'll find it in The Sun once a month at first—later it will be more frequent.

We are proud that The Sun is one of four weekly papers in California to be selected to distribute Suburbia Today. The honor really goes to the community, for they consider our town one of the finest suburban areas in the nation. Your comments will be appreciated.

And on another page...

Oops—I just turned the page and noted another significant article—"Teen-agers to the Rescue." Young people pool their ideas, work out social code for their own—and parents'—guidance.

This article reminds me of some statements recently made by J. Edgar Hoover, speaking of delinquent homes. Hoover declares that a society which has "substituted indulgence for discipline, pleasure for duty and money for morals" is a major factor in the rising delinquency of American youth.

"The initial target in the fight against juvenile delinquency is clear—adult delinquency."

"The home as a place of learning how to live as well as a place of living has almost disappeared," Hoover said. "The criteria of right and wrong have been replaced by more convenient standards of material wealth, social prestige and easy living."

How about us?

I realize that he is generalizing. And the indictment is less applicable in our community than in the big cities. Or at least we like to think so.

But let's not kid ourselves. We have a juvenile problem here (or should I say an "adult problem?") and it will increase tremendously as our big crop of little kids grow into high school. I still contend that our community offers less to our teen-agers than to any other age group.

However, Hoover's indictment is aimed at our home life. It is worth a second thought.

Spring brings the pests

That spring is here there is no doubt. Along with flowers and green hills, spring brings the bunco artists and suede shoe boys. These fellows, working house to house or in more subtle ways, offer you tremendous bargains on house repairs, painting, roofing, etc.

Be warned. Do not sign a contract unless you have investigated the firm, compared prices and checked the fine print.

Did you carefully read last week's story on lowering insurance rates for careful drivers who do not violate traffic laws and are not involved in accidents? Note that "accidents" mean any accident—WHETHER OR NOT IT IS YOUR FAULT.

If you are concerned about the narcotics problem, go to the Pinegrove School in Orinda Tuesday night at 8:30. The Young Republicans are presenting a startling and informative movie, "I am an Addict," an unrehearsed police movie. Admission is 25 cents and no one under 18 will be admitted.

And that is all for this week.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER • YE 4-3818

Lucky "Larks," Marge Harris, Vivian Farrel, Gladys Shierry, Evelyn Kiernan and Les Underhill, who—even as you and I—were "suffering from the strains of everyday living" escaped to the heavenly refuge of the Bill Harris cabin at Mt. Rose, near Reno, for a week of skiing, resting and loving it.

Kay and John Mozetti and Virginia and Bob Ramelli "escaped" too—all the way to the Claremont for a lovely evening of dining and dancing.

Then there are Carey and Bill Indig of Orinda who have concluded a fun and interesting tour. Some of their stops were in Mazatlan, Scottsdale (Arizona), Palm Springs, Escondido and Los Angeles. Have called the Indig home so many times for details—with no results—that I'm convinced they must have stopped at home just long enough to refill luggage and are now probably "doing" the 49th and 50th States.

And they're lovely new homes . . .

Two families have just moved into lovely new homes on Craigmont Drive, Walnut Creek. Wanda and Les Kruger and their children, Lisa and Eric, are "transplants" from Pleasant Hill but Helen and Bill Martin and their two, Chris and Bruce, are from Anaheim.

Conversely, Helen Groves "pulled up stakes" and moved from her Lakewood home in Walnut Creek to a scrumptious new apartment in Pleasant Hill—no more yard problems, no more utility bills—AH! Heaven! And how are YOUR weeds coming along?

The record of the Orinda's "Mary Dorr Book Review Series" was even a greater success than the first. Some of the entranced listeners were the Mmes. Charles Wilson, Jess Long, Donald Krotz, Frank Dutra, Albert Maher, E. Patterson, Cyril Hunoy, George Parnham, E. Huston, Carl Smith, Charles Jank, Clifford Vargas, Marion Erickson, Carl Hansen, Cecil Hawkins, Ed Lenord, Arthur Rymp, Jack Jansee, Fred Heydenseldt and Frank Tebbis. The third and last presentation—again to be held at the Orinda Community Church—will be on May 7. The Orinda welcomed a new member, Vera Bremer, at their last meeting.

Lunching at "Villa San Ramon" before the Flamingo "Floral Tea" were Doris Sanko, Margaret Schell, Barbara Barkley and Hilma Heaton and spotted at the Lafayette Women's Club's "Vintage '59" party at the Concord Elk's Club were the Herb Hurrells, Philip Chances, Lee Schultzes, Charles Nunes and William Witherwax. Young Donnie Turk, son of the Edward J. Turks was the jubilant one recently when he won third prize on the "Captain Fortune" program for his "Drawing of the Dragon." (???)

It's Orange Blossom Time Again

The scent of orange blossoms wafts through the Therapy Center halls these days for tall, blonde and lovely Dora Cochrane is "bout to be wed. On May 9 she (a most competent Physical Therapist) and Walt Grens will be married at the Oakland First Congregational Church. Plans are for a large affair with "ump-teen" bridesmaids, a junior bridesmaid and even a junior-kind-of-best-man. The couple will live in Carmichael, California where Walt is employed by Douglas Aircraft in missile testing research.

Dora was showered with heaps of linens at a party given by the Mmes. Carl Buechele and Carlene Ziegenfuss and at another large party, hosted by Mrs. G. S. McCullough, received enough lingerie to last from now until "space-day."

Mr. and Mrs. James Goodhue are just back from a flying trip to Palm Springs where they spent several sun-soaked days and the Gus Malmquists, about the same time, spent a week in Phoenix, Arizona.

Then there are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Garard who recently returned from a trip via freighter having visited in Puerto Rico, the Dominican Republic, Venezuela and Colombia. Can just SEE devastating Lee Garard charming her fellow passengers—yes, women, too!

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shockey loved laughing with, and at, Victor Borge following dinner at "Tarantino's." A welcome respite for the Martins after a bout with the measles at home.

The Howard Richmans and the M. F. Ohmans spent a three day week-end at a "Sardine Lake Fishfall" party at Sacramento and

The Drama Tea is anticipated each year as an outstanding post-Easter social event in the San Ramon Valley. Tickets may be obtained from any number of the Mary Doyle Unit or from the ticket chairman, Mrs. Keeling. Proceeds will benefit the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Consultants to the committee are Mrs. C. Wadsworth White, San Ramon, who is ways and means chairman, and Mrs. John Rasmussen, Danville, president of the Mary Doyle Unit.

Sororities Will Host at Panhellenic Fashion Show

Nineteen sororities will act as hostesses for the traditional Panhellenic tea and fashion show, honoring graduating seniors and mothers from Contra Costa High schools.

The tea will be held at Stanley School Auditorium in Lafayette on Sunday, April 19 at 3 p.m.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Harry W. Kelly, a member of the San Francisco-East Bay City Panhellenic and former director of the University of California Panhellenic office.

Models for the fashion show will be from the College Panhellenic group and will show clothes appropriate for campus, rushing and college party wear.

Assisting the president, Mrs. Edward S. Anderson, with hostessing are the following alumnae representatives to Panhellenic: Alpha Chi Omega, Mrs. Harold Hollister and Mrs. James J. Pangburn; Alpha Delta Phi, Mrs. Edward Anderson; Alpha Gamma Delta.

Volcano. Just as Herb Caen ponders over how the eggs are rolled on the White House lawn—I'm pondering over that last tid-bit, aren't you? Somehow I'd rather never know—it's too intriguing to be spoiled by a perfectly simple explanation. The George Emanuels family spent Easter vacation at their Inverness summer home.

A Dinner Party 'Beforehand'

Preceding the J. C. "Vegas Night" Lois and Jim Simonds entertained with a dinner party. Guests were Margaret and Lee Schell, Bev and Bruce Stringer and Muriel and Henry Rantala. "Violets in Springtime" is the scent-sational theme chosen by the Larks for their annual dessert card party to be held in sixteen Lafayette and Orinda homes on April 15.

Popular Miss Dale Morasch celebrated her birthday last Friday night by inviting all of her classmates for an evening of games and "swing." Heaps of refreshments were provided, of course, in the play room which was done up in fine carnival style. Some of the many guests were Karen Forshee, Kathy Dixon, Patty Mackenzie, Virginia Stout, Darrel LeClair, Jack Raley, Mike Regello and Danny Conoley.

A current Broadway comedy will be presented next Tuesday, April 14, at the Diablo Country Club by talented Margaret Woodall for it's time again for the Mary Doyle unit's Drama Tea. This is always such a stimulating afternoon—especially when Miss Woodall is the star attraction.

Tea will be served following her performance and tickets will be available at the door. "Show time" is at one thirty. THE perfect plan is to make reservations for luncheon first in the club's private dining room.

She's A Dream Walking . . .

A dream walking—that was Carole Yeager as she floated down the aisle on her father's arm to become Mrs. Warren C. Hegg, Jr. Carole, a former stewardess, is a true beauty with much charm! Her four attendants looked Parisian in their white lace over french-blue sheaths with matching satin bandeaus. Mrs. George T. Yeager and Mrs. Hegg, Sr. were THAT chic, Mrs. Yeager in avocado green and Mrs. Hegg in mauve—even their sheer-sheer hose in matching hues.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the Claremont Hotel. Many of the guests had, along with the senior Hegg, flown from Ohio for the occasion. The reception was held at the Walnut Creek Women's Club.

The Bobolinks of the Mount their first social activity on the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center had their first social activity on March 23.

The Bobolinks have fund-raising activities before, but this project was "finned" toward, having a good time.

Approximately 30 Bobolinks enjoyed dinner which was brought and served by a special dinner committee at the home of Dr. Paul McChesney.

After dinner the Bobbies attended the movie "Gidget" in Oakland, they returned to the home of William L. Calhoun, where they spent the night. The night was passed with little sleep and much chatter, said members.

The next morning, the band of beary-eyed Bobbies had breakfast at the home of Harry D. Clark. After breakfast, several departed for home to catch a few winks of sleep while the rest made their way to the home of John McCosker where they swam and had a refreshing brunch.

The affair officially ended about noon, March 24.

Luncheon, Auction, Movie Alpha Xi Delta Planning Event

By MARIE MONAHAN

A regal lady, with an obvious joy of living, spoke to a rapt audience of 300 guests attending the Guide Dogs For The Blind luncheon at the St. Francis on April 1.

The woman was Mrs. Bernice Anderson of Walnut Creek who, although blind, leads a fuller life than most sighted persons through the invaluable companionship of her guide dog Holly.

Mrs. Anderson, who lives with her husband Oscar on Boulevard Way in Walnut Creek, had hand-knitted the smart coral knit suit she was wearing.

From her garden, another of hobbies, she had tucked a red camellia into her smart short graying coiffure.

This remarkable lady who is a teacher of French, mathematics and Spanish at the California School for the Blind in Berkeley, also plays the piano and the organ and is active in church, civic groups, and a member of the A.A.U.W.

Mrs. Anderson sat at the podium table in the Colonial Room between two board members, one of which was Mrs. Jerry Walker of Orinda who holds office as secretary, and the other Mrs. John B. Knox, Sr. who is assistant secretary and heads the campaign on the town side of the tunnel.

For the afternoon function which included an auction and a movie made at the training school in San Rafael, Ruth Walker wore a beige sheared beaver jacket over a print silk dress.

Arriving together, both in vogue flower-wig hats, were Contra Costa County chairman Dorothy P. Ballachey and area Captain Mrs. Walter F. Young. Mrs. Ballachey will entertain at her Colorado Court home in Lafayette next Thursday at a dessert-luncheon for local women working on the campaign. Joining this duo was Mrs. Richard Parker who had just returned from a Palm Springs vacation.

Unable to attend last minute were Mrs. Les Hink, Sr., area co-chairman and Mrs. Hamilton Bonds of a Georgia holiday.

At one of the Contra Costa flag-marked tables sat Mrs. Robert Singer, El Cerrito captain. She will shortly embark for Honolulu to join Mrs. Hugh Corum, Diablo-Danville captain who is enjoying an Island vacation after preliminary work on her "pet project."

Trim in their white middie and skirt uniforms worn with red ties were Sara Dix Hamlin girls who serve as "puppy testers."

They circulated between the luncheon tables so guests could view closer at hand the five black and white drawings of an irresistible "Snoopy."

These were contributed for Auction to Guide Dogs by Chronicle cartoonist Charles Schulz who draws the popular "Peanuts" series.

High-bidder for the favorite one of "Snoopy" jiggling away to musical notes, was Mrs. Bruce McCreary of Lafayette. She has been an ardent fan of Mr. Schulz ever since, as a judge in a baby contest, he awarded top honors to one of her young daughters.

Glimpsed lunching in the enthusiastic gathering were Mrs. John Follard, home to Orinda after Easter week spent in Portland and a stay at Alisal Ranch and Mrs. John Dorr and her mother Mrs. Harper Wright who soon will move to Malibu.

Both board members Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Follard are active members of "The Guiders," a group of ladies who work overtime for Guide Dogs to give the blind a "new leash on life."

Old-Fashioned Country Barn Dance Set for Club

Surprise door prizes, and square dancing during the intermissions will add to the gaiety.

Jack Clark, principal of Glorietta School will call the square dancing. There will also be a regular combo band for smooth dancing.

Co-chairman of the dance are Mrs. Elliott Rose and Mrs. Ernest Haynes. Their committees are floor; Mrs. Thomas Cannon, chairman and Mesdames E. F. Nielsen, James Stockholm, M. R. Cancer Facts Will Combat Quack Remedies

The Contra Costa Branch of the American Cancer Society is helping to fight cancer quackery by alerting the public to common misconceptions about the disease. Dr. Frederick A. Pellegrin, county president, declared this week. Dr. Pellegrin's statement highlighted the mid-point of a month-long cancer crusade by the local branch.

Society's emphasizing that radiation and surgery are the only known methods for curing cancer should make it harder for quacks to sell "secret" medicines and gadgets, said Dr. Pellegrin.

"UNFORTUNATELY," he said, "there always will be gullible people willing to place their faith in quack promises instead of seeking legitimate cure. The tragedy of such cases is that cancer gains on the patient when treatment is delayed until too late to save a life."

Fear is the main force which drives people to cancer quacks, is the view of the society.

"Some people don't face up to reality, and the quack leads them to believe that under his care they will be all right," pointed out Dr. Pellegrin.

"Ironically, though," he said, "fear of cancer also keeps healthy patients in the quacks' clutches. Patients are told they have cancer when they don't. Then the quacks keep them coming back for 'treatments,' finally announcing a 'cure.'"

AS PART OF its education program, the American Cancer Society advocates regular health checkups by one's family physi-

Mild 'Flu' is Bothering Residents

"Sporadic cases of a mild illness similar to influenza have been occurring in Contra Costa County during the past few weeks," Dr. John Baier, assistant county health officer, said.

"Influenza outbreaks are occurring throughout the world and it is important that our citizens know the present facts," Dr. Baier added.

At no place in the United States has influenza reached epidemic proportions so far this year.

There were localized outbreaks of Asian influenza at Squaw Valley and in neighboring Alameda County.

Influenza B virus, which has been fairly widespread in Western Europe, has occurred in localized areas throughout the United States including the Los Angeles area.

In general, the illnesses have been mild and confined mainly to school-age children.

Information about health checkups and cancer's seven danger signals will be distributed to every home in every community in Contra Costa County on "C-Day," Monday, April 20, when American Cancer Society volunteers will conduct a house-to-house educational and fund raising crusade.

Early cancers often can be detected in the course of a routine examination, explained Dr. Pellegrin.

Between examinations, one should be alert to cancer's early warning signs, emphasizes the society.

"Although our festival, which is one of the big four bargain events conducted at Broadway each year will be underway from Thursday to Saturday, we will be giving carnations from Friday noon until Saturday evening at the Shopping Center," Webster commented.

CAPWELL'S IN THE Broadway Shopping Center will be the scene of a fashion show April 18 in the parking lot. Participating in the fashion parade of home made dresses, sportswear and evening gowns will be Nancy Wertz, Sandra Ellen, Carol Cannon and Kathy Marron. The fashions have been created in conjunction with McCall's, Capwell's and Domestic Science teachers in area high schools.

Area Girls to Parade In 'Do-It-Yourself' Show

Area high school domestic science girls will model self-made fashions at Capwell's April 18. The show will begin in the parking lot at 2:30 p.m. and will climax four months of planning which began with selection of participants last December.

The girls were selected by high school domestic science teachers on the basis of seamstresship, desire to model and modeling stature.

In February, the girls selected McCall's patterns and fabrics, donated by Capwell, for their garments. The girls finished making the clothes in April and met at the store to select accessories for the show.

Mrs. Wilma Schmidt, McCall's fashion co-ordinator, is helping the girls to learn modeling techniques. The show will feature a variety of fashions ranging from formal to the latest in sportswear. Emphasis will be on warm weather fabrics such as cotton and rayon.

Young ladies modeling in the show are Margaret Thompson and Suzanne De Haan of Acalanes High; Kathy Martin, Candace Lightcap, Sandra Hart and Linda Ehler of Alhambra High; and Mary Ann Clark and Joyce Compomizzo of Antioch High.

OTHERS ARE Lillian Bentley and Anita Tucci of Antioch Junior High; Sandra Johnson of Clayton Valley High; Barbara Stokes of Glenbrook Intermediate and Nancy Schuere, Mary Acco-mazzo and Diane Skidmore of Las Lomas High. Caroline Smyth of Martinez Junior High also will model, along with Thea Dykman, Kathy Cowell

and Christine Darrow from Mt. Diablo High; Marcia McClurg of Oak Grove Intermediate; Carole Cannon and Kathy Marron from Miramonte High; Sharon Keele of Pacifica and Penny Lockwood from Park Mead upper grade. Rounding out the group will be Terry Lichti and Diane Ratto of Pittsburg High; Bonnie Alves of

Accent On Orient Is Possibility

Of all things from the mysterious East, none so mystifies the occidental as the Japanese art of landscape design. The restrained magnificence, the grace, the attention to minutest detail lend to the Japanese landscape a feeling that every twig is in place—which indeed it often is.

It takes more patience than most of us will ever have to achieve this—not to mention an understanding of the significance behind it. But it is possible, through careful selection of material, to have an oriental accent or two.

One secret is in achieving the proper scale. This calls for a good amount of low growing or dwarf stock in combination with a few taller shrubs and trees to emphasize the dimension. It calls, too, for a heavy hand with pruning shears to keep some of the material in a dwarf-like state.

Plan Early For Outdoor Living Room

For more enjoyment from the family's "outdoor living room" during the warm weather months, "plan early" is the rule.

Even when the weather doesn't cooperate, early selection of furniture for porch or patio, lawn or terrace can pay off in extra use, since more and more "outdoor" furniture is being designed to look equally at home indoors.

And, if plans are made early enough, many indoor conveniences can be enjoyed outdoors.

On a sheltered terrace or patio or an enclosed porch, small electric appliances for cooking, an electric clock, a portable TV set, even an electric fan can be pleasant and practical additions to outdoor living, but prompt action is called for—not only to select the desired appliances but also to have needed electric outlets installed now.

For the lawn or open patio, outdoor cooking equipment usually ranks right along with furniture in interest and usefulness.

Is this the year to build a barbecue oven?

Or should the choice be a portable barbecue or grill?

Let the Plants Fit the Soil!

A big expanse of problem soil is enough to make any gardener throw in the towel and call it quits. At least the thought of improving it is.

But is soil improvement always necessary? The California Association of Nurserymen will argue long on that point.

Improvement is fine, say the nurserymen, if you have both the back and the heart to do it. Humus and soil conditioner will take care of all but the rockiest stretches of land.

BUT DOESN'T it sound easier to improve only a few strategic places and find plants that will fit the rest? It makes sense to us.

Home Repair to Become Big Summer-Time Task

Indications are that more Contra Costa County residents may be planning to repair or improve their homes this spring than in any year in recent history, according to Bill Hayward, president of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board.

He said such work is being planned in preparation for the possible sale of the home.

Lloyd E. Holton, realtor, said that his belief in a boom period of home modernization and maintenance is based on the observations of the 110 realtors who are members of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, and on a survey report issued by the Federal Reserve System.

THE FRS SURVEY of the spending plans of consumers indicated that 24.6 per cent of the nation's nonfarm families intend to spend $50 or more on improvements or repairs to their homes during 1959.

This is the highest percentage of those indicating such plans since early 1953 when the subject was first included in the survey.

"While the FRS study was national in scope without particular reference to any community, there is no reason to believe that Contra Costa County differs from the nation with respect to the spending plans of its residents," Lewis Reark, Orinda realtor, said.

HAYWARD SAID that board members are equipped to offer two kinds of advice to persons contemplating home improvements as an aid to the sale of their property.

"We can be helpful to such people in suggesting what they ought to do and ought not to do in the way of home improvement if their primary reason for making homes.

such plans is to put their homes in a more marketable condition," he said.

"In the course of the thousands of home sales they have negotiated, realtors have gained clear ideas of the types of improvements that help to sell homes, and those that hurt chances for sale at a price reflecting the owners' investments in them," he added.

"We know that first impressions gathered by a prospective buyer are often lasting ones," said Tony Eberle of Lafayette. "The first thing that an average sales prospect notes about a home is the condition of the grounds. This is particularly true in spring.

"IF THE LAWN is patchy or untidy, and the shrubbery neglected, the initial impression is negative.

"The same thing is true of the exterior of the home—fresh trim paint will go a long way to produce an inviting appearance.

"Thus, in fixing a home up for sale, we recommend that its exterior condition come high up on the maintenance list."

As an example of the type of improvement that the home owner thinking of selling might wish to avoid, Eberle referred to improvements that tend to "drive the home out of its neighborhood."

TO ILLUSTRATE, an owner of an $18,500 home in a neighborhood of similar homes who spent $2,000 building a hi-fi room over the garage.

When he wanted to sell, he sought to include his investment in the asking price of the home only to find buyer resistance to paying $20,500 for a home in a neighborhood of lower-priced homes.

Summer Blooms Are Big, Showy; Check Specimens

The summer-blooming bulbs may lack the cheery brightness of their spring counterparts. But, they make up in size and bloom for any such shortcoming.

They are big and showy. What's more, they come at a time when we can enjoy them, not—as so many spring bulbs—in the middle of a rain storm.

Most gardeners are familiar with old summer standbys such as the gladiolus, dahlia and tuberous begonia. But many have yet to meet such other gaudy specimens as tigridia, agapanthus and amaryllis.

LET'S CONSIDER these three in that order before going on.

The California Association of Nurserymen reports that tigridia bulbs are in good supply once again (a big freeze some years back wiped out much of the commercial crop and strictly limited supply). They are definitely for every garden, putting forth gorgeous, three-cornered tiger flowers in mid-summer.

Each bloom lasts one day, but each bulb puts out a staggering succession of blooms.

The agapanthus, or blue lily of the Nile, is usually sold by division of its tuberous root in gallon cans.

IN THE GARDEN or in a tub, its clusters of flowers in a good shade of blue are always welcome—coming as they do on tall straight stems for several weeks in summer.

Similar in flower form, but totally different in habit, is the common garden amaryllis. It sends up bare brown stalks, topped by large pink flower heads, before any foliage shows up.

This habit dictates that amaryllis be planted where some low-growing shrubbery hides its basal nakedness.

An finally, worth your attention are the cannas. They show long and often spectacular bloom—resembling somewhat a giant gladiolus—if given a warm location, rich soil and plenty of water. Cannas are not subtle, but then, neither are any of the summer bulbs.

They're real showpieces, big and colorful—just what you need to brighten the summer garden.

Don't Go Half Way With Roses

In spraying roses, many gardeners are prone to doing only a half-way job. That is, they spray the tops and let the bottoms go. Be sure to saturate all areas of the bush, including the bottomside of the foliage, the canes and the ground at the base.

The California Association of Nurserymen cautions once again that this should be done on a windless day to avoid any chance of excess inhalation of the spray.

Parsley Makes Fine Border

Parsley makes a fine border for the summer garden — an asset both for its looks and its contribution to the family cuisine. Parsley is simple to grow from seed, but here are two steps to speed germination, which is normally slow. One step is to soak the seed overnight in warm water before planting.

A simpler step, since it is often difficult to keep the water warm, is to plant the seed, then water it each morning with hot water until it sprouts. Where no great area must be watered, this is the most efficient way.

Dahlias Are Easy to Take Care of Bring Gay Color

Dahlias grow beautifully in California and can add much to the summer garden.

Coming as they do when much of the garden is in a late summer slump (to say nothing of the gardener), their color is all the more welcome.

AND WHAT COLOR!
Bright splashes of it in the gayest shades of red, orange, yellow, white, bronze and a purple that's so deep it's almost black.

Like Chrysanthemums, Dahlias come in enough sizes and shapes to please everyone.

You find them in small pom-poms on up through a myriad of single and double forms to gigantic double mops the size of a dinner plate.

FOR ALL THEIR worth, however, Dahlias are among the easiest ornamentals to grow. You can merely plant a tuber and give it an occasional watering to get far more than such idle methods deserve.

But with a modicum of attention, the same Dahlia will reward you with added vigor and increased blooms.

At planting time, tubers should go 4 to 6 inches deep, depending on whether soil is heavy or loose the looser, the deeper. Large lowered varieties especially will need a stake which can and should be placed at planting time.

The end of the tuber with the eye should be planted toward and within an inch or two of the stake.

WATER AND SUN are important to the Dahlia. Supply the former about twice a week during its period of growth. A mulch with steer manure when plants are well up should be all the fertilizer needed.

To encourage branching and added color, pinch out the top of each plant when it has three or four sets of leaves.

WHEN PICKING the blooms, avoid the heat of the day. Morning is the preferred picking time. Strip the lower leaves and plunge the stems into scalding water.

Far from finishing the bloom off, such treatment will prolong its life and let you enjoy in the house what you've already enjoyed outside.

Try Conifers in Containers

In an age of outdoor living, it's hard not to go overboard on container-grown shrubs and trees. And when it comes to conifers in containers, there's no restraining us.

For it's a fact that outdoor living with most Californians dates from some experience in the pine country — a camping trip or picnic in the distant past. And having pines and other conifers on his deck or around the patio heightens the association and increases his pleasure of the present.

The association of coniferous evergreens with plant containers dates from a time past, but early memories are all of a columnar Arborvitae or Yew standing as sentinels beside a door. These are still desirable, but less so as sentinels than as specimens in the outdoor living area.

A favorite in modern patio design—excellent for tubs—is the squat Mugo Pine. Its scale is perfect for container culture and its busy, long-needle look is typical of many taller cousins. Japanese Black Pine can be kept in a container for years, adding but little to its height each year.

What's Most Beautiful? It's the Azalea

Even a spring garden show in Northern California and it's a good bet you'll come away with one firm conviction:

Namely, that few things are more beautiful than a deciduous azalea in full bloom.

Robust is one way to describe these showy gems. THEY HOLD nothing in reserve—as do their evergreen cousins—for scattered bloom through several weeks or months. They burst forth in the full glory of spring, their masses of vivid rhododendron-like blooms forming a great splash of color.

Nor is that all. In fall, the foliage—even in such mild areas as the San Francisco Bay region—takes on deep tones of the season before dropping.

The California Association of Nurserymen is high on the deciduous azalea and rates it as one of our very best deciduous shrubs.

THAT MORE people don't plant them is unquestionably due to the fact that they visit the nursery at the wrong time to see them in full bloom.

So be warned. Check in at a local C.A.N. nursery in coming weeks and see for yourself.

There are several different deciduous azaleas to be found in California gardens, but by far the largest majority of them belong to the mollis group.

THESE MOLLIS hybrids are all bloom, showing color before the leaves come along to share the stage. They are easy to grow and require little more attention than to watering for a fine performance year in, year out.

Their colors run in shades of cream, yellow, gold and orange, and their display is such that they can be used either by themselves or in groups. In conjunction with other spring bloomers, try them with lower-growing evergreen azaleas—especially the whites—or where they will overlap with the early rhododendrons. They don't need any support themselves, but they do more than their share of supporting even these two worthies.

Begonias Should Be Started in Your Garden Now

Here is your gardening checklist for this week:

1. Begonia tubers can and should still be started in April. Seedling tuberous begonias are also beginning to show up in nurseries now.

2. All container grown shrubs and trees can go in now. The sooner the better if you want to get use from them this year.

3. If you failed to get that special rose planted during bare-root season, chances are you'll find it in a container at your local nursery now.

4. Vines should be checked frequently during the growing season to make sure they go where you want them to.

5. Set out carnations from plant bands this month. Set a stake at planting time to help keep growth upright from the start.

Knights Keep League Top Spot: Defeat Acalanes

In a tight and fast ball game, the Las Lomas Knights edged the Acalanes Dons in a league game played at the Walnut Creek field Tuesday afternoon.

The win kept the Knights at the top of the standings with a 2-0 record, while it marked the Dons first league play as they drew a bye in the April 2 opening round.

SENIOR DON Hopkins, the ace of the Knights' pitching staff, was in good form as he scattered three Don hits in hurling the shut-out.

Tom Strain, a sophomore right hander for the Dons, threw a good game of his own as he gave up but four hits—the big blow a home run by leadoff hitter Bob Morris who hit a chest-high pitch over the left field fence in the sixth.

The blow put the Knights ahead 2-0—as they scored a run in the fourth when Hopkins hit a lead-off triple and scored when catcher Lou Cosso bobbled a wide pitch.

Hopkins was in rare form as he gave up but one walk and faced but 24 batters over the seven-inning stint.

STRAIN WAS not far behind facing but 22 batters in the six innings he worked. (Las Lomas didn't come to bat in the bottom of the seventh.)

Strain, like Hopkins, yielded but one walk, to wind up the game in one hour and 45 minutes playing time.

Three Dons and one Knight went down via the strike out route while in the error department the Acalanes team had four and the Knights one.

Batteries: Las Lomas—Hopkins and Dodge; Acalanes—Strain and Cosso.

PH Rams Batted Back by Clayton Valley in Upset

The Pleasant Hill Rams suffered a setback Tuesday afternoon when the Clayton Valley Eagles upset them in a league game by a 9-6 score.

The Rams, playing before a home crowd started off well enough shutting the opposition out in the first inning and taking a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the frame when Mike Slusher was on Niswonger, stole second and via an error by shortstop Jim scampared home with the tally on Bill Chappell's single.

THE EAGLES scored in the second to tie it up and then the Rams crossed home plate with three runs in the third.

Slusher started it with a lead off single and Mark Bower was on when third baseman Ray Lucas booted the ball.

Chappell followed with his second single to score Slusher and advance Bower to third with Chappell going to second on an outfield throw to home.

First baseman Bill Locatelli followed with a double to score Bower and Chappell.

That gave the Rams a 4-1 lead and they held the three run edge 6-3 when each club scored a pair of runs in the fourth.

THE ROOF FELL in as far as the Rams were concerned in the top of the fatal fifth when Clayton Valley turned four hits, two errors and two walks into six runs.

That gave Clayton Valley an 8-6 edge and that's the way it ended when neither club scored the rest of the way.

Livermore Cowboys Hit By Las Lomas Knights

The Las Lomas nights posted a 6-3 win over the Livermore boys in a practice game at Walnut Creek last Friday afternoon.

Bill Remy threw two hit ball at the visitors while striking out five and walking but two to chalk up the win.

In addition, the sophomore scored two runs on his own and got an RBI for one on his own.

Livermore scored first with a run in the second inning, but their lead was short lived when the Knights denied home plate for four more in the bottom of the same frame.

Bob Samuck and Jack Kennedy drew walks and Remy singled to score Samuck.

Bob Morris hit a single to score Kennedy. Terry Seiberlich was on when hit by a pitched ball and Mike Hair drove in two runs with a double.

Each club got a pair of runs in the fourth to round out the scoring with the big blow a home run over the left field fence by Morris with one on.

The nights had six hits to the losers two and committed five errors to Livermore's two.

Ram Thinclads Drop Paperville In Triangular

The Pleasant Hill Rams scored a win over the Antioch Panthers in both the varsity and bee meets in Paperville Friday afternoon.

It was close in the league varsity duel meet as the Rams won out 59% to 53% while in the bee the Rams really dominated as they ran, jumped and hurled to a 84% to 28% margin.

ANTIOCH WON but two firsts winning the 220 and the 120 yard low.

Top performance for the Ram varsity was a 10.1 hundred by Joe McFarland, breaking the school mark of 10.2 set by Lou Salazar.

Entering as a third team, Willow Glen of San Jose wound up in third place in varsity competition with Pleasant Hill first with 56% points to 47 for Antioch and 36% for Willow Glen.

FIGURING ON a triangular meet score, Pleasant Hill ended up with 66 points, Willow Glen with 52% and Antioch 21%.

Rams Lose Close Game to Pacifica

The Pleasant Hill Rams lost a close 3-2 decision to the Pacifica Spartans in their league opener April 2.

The game was played at Shore Acres diamond.

The Rams took the lead in the second inning when two errors in the outfield scored a run.

Pacifica came back with two in the third, only to have the Rams tie the game when they scored the sixth as Bill Chappell tripled and came in on a passed ball.

IT'S GETTING TO BE a habit with Dixon Farmer, Miramonte track flash, breaking records. Teammate Jeff Neighbor gives Farmer a hint as to one record that he hasn't broken, yet. Sun photo by Mattson

Sideline Slants Local Preps Make Grade On College Sport Squads

A former Las Lomas prep made his mark at San Jose State in basketball.

Arnie Lundquist wound up as the number 10 rebounder with a 10.2 average.

EX DON JOE SHEAFF down Santa Clara way where he is a sophomore wound up with a 47.7 per cent shooting average when he made 52 of 109 field goal shots and was rated the seventh in rebounding with an average of 11 a game.

Jim Hart, ex Acalanes letterman, set a winter record in the indoor meets held in the east for a 48-9. Competing for the Naval Academy at Annapolis he also set a new mark in the 35 pound weight event at 46.3.

Bidding for the services of Miramonte track ace Dixon Farmer is bound to get more interesting as graduation time nears.

The Orinda prep is the most versatile performer hereabouts and with age and added size would be an olympic decathlon performer.

HIS MARKS in the various events are outstanding. Miramonte hardly figures to win division or county team track honors, but Farmer could go a long way toward deciding the eventual winner.

Chances are the events he enters he will win and that will cut down the points of schools entered in the same event.

The big question in the minds of coaches is what events will he enter.

Versatile as he is, it could be a good variety.

A Diablo Valley Athletic League meet was held at Diablo Valley College Tuesday morning. The topic was the request of the Foothill Division plus Alhambra High to be recognized as a separate league.

Considerable discussions ended in the 9-3 vote denying the request.

It now goes to the North Coast Section officials for a ruling and how it will end up only time will tell.

CHANCES ARE it will all work out as time has a way of doing just that.

The only thing certain, however, is that it won't be to everyone's satisfaction.

A gym has been opened in Lafayette by Jack Gore which features boxing instruction, judo and conditioning work along with steam bath facilities.

Boxing instruction in itself is a novelty hereabouts. PERHAPS IT'S A change of the times, but it's been a long time since I have seen kids with a pair of boxing gloves on engaged in a friendly sparring session.

Boxing instruction and participation is important for most boys simply from the point of view of the knowledge of the game.

See where Concord, Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill are laying plans for Pop Warner Football which is for the small player—pretty much as Little League is in baseball.

The Lafayette Youth Association has had over 400 sign up for summer baseball. Pleasant Hill has had an additional 800 boys sign up to play ball.

Sno Scoops ... By GARY BARNETT

Most lodge owners by now are down on their knees begging for snow. Business is very bad at this point and the large ski areas are suffering.

I went up last weekend to Heavenly Valley, but I just couldn't find the right wax for gravel.

Only one bus a day leaves the Tax-a-lac Lodge at Bijou for San Francisco. Bill Stafford of Walnut Creek and George Mulks of Orinda missed the bus, so luggage in hand they hitchhiked back and beat the bus to the outskirts of Walnut Creek.

Susan Blake, Lynda Reeves and Vicki Barnett also spent some time in the snow. It was their first time on skis.

Mats Land in Winner's Column After Piedmont

The Miramonte High baseball team hit the win column in league play Tuesday when they scored three runs in the top of the sixth to wind up an 8-6 winner in a see-saw game over Piedmont.

The game, played at the Orinda diamond, found Piedmont scoring in the first inning when Deb Mallory singled after two were down via the strike-out route.

PIEDMONT loaded the bags and when Bob Johnson drew a base on balls Mallory was forced home with the run.

The Mats came back with a run in their turn at bat and made it 3-1 in the second.

Bob Ellemeyer walked and Pete Yedid singled with Bob Cowley leading the bags when he walked.

Dave Rhoda also scored Ellemeyer and when Dick Clark threw another base on balls Yedid scored for the second run of the game.

Las Lomas Over Mats in Opener

The Las Lomas Knights scored in the early innings to defeat Miramonte High 10-3 in their league opener April 2.

The game, played at the Orinda diamond, found the Knight team getting two runs in the first, three in the second, three in the third and two in the fourth.

Miramonte collected two runners in the second and one in the third.

Jeff Beانبien hit a home run to deep left in the first inning for the Knights. Larry Drummond, Dick Dodge and Bob Samuels each collected two hits for the winners.

The Knights out-hit Miramonte 10-5 and had three errors to the losers five.

Batteries: Las Lomas—Hanson and Dodge; Miramonte—Hilger, Hancock (5) and Welch. Piedmont: Hughes and Miles.

Acalanes Gains Only One First Against Berkeley

The Berkeley High thinclads proved to be too strong for the Acalanes Don varsity in a meet at the Lafayette field last Friday afternoon when they won by a 76-37 score.

The Don Bees reversed things, however, to cop the nod 73-49.

WC Warriors Dumped On Ice

Miles Argonaut of Sacramento, on the fine play of ace center Don Crawford, gained Northern California Championship by beating the Walnut Creek Warriors 3-2.

The game was fast, hard and rough in true playoff style. The Warriors were slow to start and the Argos dominated the play for the first period.

Sunday evening at 6 Berkeley will face Sacramento Thunderbirds at Berkeley Icefield.

and then won the 330 in 38.2. Bill Booth topped the high jump at 5-5 and tied for first in the pole vault at 9-6.

Bill Pinkin won the shot at 51-4 and tossed the discus 129-10½ for a new school and stadium mark.

Don Warren Adams also broke the school mark with a heave of 127-6.

Fire District Decision Facing Moraga Residents

The decision whether to remain in the East Contra Costa Fire Protection District, but in a separate tax zone, or annex to the Orinda Fire District must be made by February 1 by Moraga residents.

Within a month, a study of the feasibility of consolidating the county's 21 fire districts will be completed by Joseph Connery, county staff analyst.

"Something" must be done about Moraga by next February 1 although the board of supervisors will call for a study and public hearing on consolidation, Supervisor Mel Nielsen told Community Club members this week. THE MEMBERS were told that the multi-special district study involves much more than just the first district analysis, and Nielsen added, "We are not trying to shove anything down your throats. He added, "We are just trying to develop what will give the most for the money. It's up to you to decide."

Nielsen and Company both denied that they criticized the Moraga Fire Department or its volunteers, or that they are working for annexing to the Orinda district.

Nielsen added that consolidation of fire districts on a large scale will take a long period of time.

THE RESIDENTS also asked about possibilities of withdrawing from the East Contra Costa District, and establishment of their own district. Gerould Gill, chief and board chairman of the district, has proposed that a separate tax zone be established in Moraga. The study of this proposal has been postponed.

The Moraga Department, with 10 paid men, six pieces of fire equipment, two stations and a number of volunteers, is in class VI zone.

The department, due to the population expansion in recent years, is drawing the bulk of the East Contra Costa District's equipment.

GILL SAID his proposal would ease the district's 70.3 cent tax burden on farm and range lands, but the equalization will be achieved gradually, as the Moraga evaluation increases.

The county Board of Supervisors will ultimately decide whether or not to proceed with consolidation.

Advantages of consolidation were listed by Connery. They include standardization of salaries, and fringe benefits, tax rates, pooling of equipment for better insurance advantages and less duplication of special equipment and supplies.

Willful Failures To Be Expelled In Acalanes District

Acalanes High School District students classified as "willful, habitual academic failures" will be expelled by district trustees, upon a recommendation to that effect from the principals, it was announced.

Such "failures" are "the result of willfully failing on the part of the pupil to the extent that he has received a grade of 'F' in three or more subjects, or in 50 per cent of the assigned program for that report card period."

The board will be guided by reports of counselors and guidance authorities and recommendations of the principal.

In adopting the policy board president William Lee emphasized that the policy is not directed at the student "who is trying but possibly failing, but rather at the indifferent or undisciplined student who willfully flunks."

County Heart Fund Gifts Help Research

"Contributions by the people of Contra Costa County to the Heart Fund have helped make possible the award of fellowships totalling $1,562,243 to 182 scientists across the country who are conducting research on diseases of the heart and blood vessels," it was announced this week by William C. McIntosh, president of the Contra Costa County Heart Association.

The awards were made under the national research support program of the American Heart Association. Of the Heart Fund contributions provided by the Contra Costa County Heart Association to support the national program aimed at combating the cardiovascular diseases, more than 50 per cent is allocated to research.

'City' Petitions Being Checked; Hearing Is Soon

County officials were busy this week checking the 3200 signatures affixed to the petition for incorporation of Lafayette, filed by the Lafayette Improvement Association.

To be effective, the petition must have the names of 25 per cent of the registered voters, owning 25 per cent of the assessed land valuation of the area described.

A public hearing will probably be held in April, and the matter will go to a vote probably in July.

Charles Baake, Association president, said that local control over civic affairs is a main motive for the move.

It's Easy to Sell Anything

J. W. Boyd of 3301 North Main, Pleasant Hill, traded his 1957 Pan American house trailer equity for a home by using The Sun Valley Vista, Danville, had no trouble selling her Duncan Phyllis And Barbara Cruz of 272 dining room table, six upholstered chairs, a baby buggy and drawer dresser, with The Sun classified ads.

John Ferrante easily sold 100 railroad ties at $1 each in two days. He called The Sun and placed a minimum rate classified ad.

A KENMORE automatic washer offered by Jack Kirby of 1091 Laurel Drive, Lafayette, went fast—after Kirby placed his Sun classified ad.

These are only samples of the hundreds of phone calls received each week from happy Sun cus-

Realtor Week Is Proclaimed; Events Planned

Bill Hayward, president of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, announced that Governor Edmund G. Brown has designated April 12-18 as "Realtor Week."

The Contra Costa Real Estate Board will join hundreds of similar boards across the country in presenting to the public the aims and obligations of realtors, Bill Hayward said.

Special events will be held by the real estate board during the week, it was reported. In the proclamation designating

Realtor Week, Governor Brown said, "Realtors are dedicated to the wise utilization and widespread ownership of real property upon which the continued growth and prosperity of this state in large measure ultimately depends."

"In serving the buyers and sellers of real property, realtors are pledged to conduct all transactions in accordance with a strict code of ethics based on the Golden Rule."

"Realtors bring to the service of the public proven professional competence which has played a large part in bringing, among other things, individual home ownership in our country to heights unsurpassed elsewhere in the world."

"They have evinced an interest in the welfare of their communities far beyond the ordinary call of business, by sponsoring, for example, the Build America Better program for the prevention of city blight and the elimination of slums."

"I, Edmund G. Brown, Governor of the State of California, do therefore designate the week of April 12-18, to be Realtor Week, and urge the citizens of California to join with me in offering best wishes to the realtors of this state."
